CATTLE.—The market was a very dull one this week, notwithstanding the supply on sale was comparatively light, reaching only about five hundred head. There were but few foreign buyers in attendance, and the butchen, generally, for some reason or other, bought sparingly, notwithstanding the quality of the cattle was better than usual. So far as prices are concerned, there has been no material change, compared with last week. Frime to exite all cattle sold at from $1/4$ to $1/4$. Stock cattle were in All changes and steady, with sales to a fair extent at $1/4$ to $6/5, according to quality and condition.

SHEEF.—The supply of Sheep was also light this week, but as the demand was rather limited, prices have undergone no change, compared with last week. We continue to quote prime to exite at Sheep at $10 5/6, gross—wm. Garvin sold a drove of pretty good wooled sheep at $1/6, averaged 101 pounds.

Hoos.—The market for this class of stock continues dull and neglected, though prices at these yards have undergone no essential change. Emerick & Co. report having retailed 100 head at 7/4 to $1/6, gross. (In New York) Hogs have declined to $1/67%, and very dull.
